

BEST INTEREST OF THE CHILD LETTER

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is prepared in accordance with United States law to affirm that all decisions and actions taken concerning the child's care, custody, and welfare are solely in the best interest of the child. The undersigned parties recognize the paramount importance of the child's safety, health, education, and emotional well-being.

The child's physical, emotional, developmental, and psychological needs have been carefully considered in every aspect of parenting and guardianship. All arrangements and agreements are designed to promote stability, continuity, and a nurturing environment conducive to the child's growth.

All parties involved agree to cooperate fully and communicate effectively to ensure that the child's best interests are served at all times. Any disputes or concerns regarding custodial arrangements shall be resolved in a manner respectful of the child's needs and consistent with applicable laws and court orders.

The undersigned affirm that they understand their obligations under state and federal law to protect the child's welfare and are committed to upholding these duties without reservation.

This letter may be used for legal, educational, medical, or governmental purposes related to the child's care and custody, as necessary and appropriate within the scope permitted by law.

The undersigned acknowledge that any false statements or representations herein may be subject to penalties under applicable laws, including perjury or contempt of court.
