

DENTAL CLEARANCE LETTER

Patient Name: _____ Date of Examination: _____

Dentist Information:

Full Name: _____

License Number: _____

Office Address: _____

Phone / Email: _____

Examination Details:

The undersigned dentist hereby certifies that the patient named above has undergone a comprehensive dental examination. Based on the clinical evaluation, radiographic findings, and any necessary diagnostic tests, the patient's oral health status has been assessed. No active dental infections or conditions that would contraindicate dental clearance for the intended procedure or requirement have been identified. The patient is deemed dentally fit and cleared for dental procedures, employment, academic enrollment, or other specified purposes as applicable under United States law.

Limitations and Recommendations:

This clearance letter is based solely on the examination conducted on the date indicated and does not guarantee future dental health. It is recommended that the patient maintain regular dental check-ups and follow all prescribed oral hygiene practices. Any findings requiring treatment not completed at the time of this examination are noted separately and should be addressed promptly to maintain oral health.

Legal Notice:

This Dental Clearance Letter is provided in compliance with applicable United States laws and regulations. It is intended solely for the use of the patient and the requesting entity. Unauthorized use, reproduction, or distribution of this document is prohibited. The dentist issuing this letter affirms that all information herein is accurate to the best of their knowledge and based on current clinical standards.
