

OFFICIAL NO TRESPASSING LETTER

Property Owner / Authorized Person: _____

Property Address / Location: _____

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as formal notice that the property referenced above is private property and is protected under United States law. Unauthorized entry, presence, or use of this property by individuals or entities without explicit permission from the property owner or authorized representative is strictly prohibited. This notice is issued pursuant to applicable state and federal trespassing laws and regulations to safeguard the property and ensure the safety and security of all parties involved.

Legal Basis for Notice:

Under United States law, including but not limited to applicable state statutes and common law principles, trespassing upon private property without consent constitutes a violation punishable by civil and/or criminal penalties. The property owner reserves all rights to enforce such laws, including seeking removal of trespassers, damages, and legal remedies as provided by law.

Prohibited Activities:

The following activities are prohibited without prior express written consent from the property owner or authorized representative:

- Entering or remaining on the property
- Hunting, fishing, or trapping
- Dumping or littering
- Constructing or placing any structures or objects
- Any activity that may cause damage, disturbance, or nuisance

Enforcement and Consequences:

Violations of this notice may result in immediate removal from the property, and the commencement of legal proceedings including but not limited to charges of criminal trespass, civil liability for damages, and injunctive relief. Law enforcement agencies have been notified of this notice and are authorized to take appropriate action to enforce trespassing laws at this location.

Duration of Notice:

This No Trespassing Notice shall remain in effect indefinitely until rescinded in writing by the property owner or authorized representative. All persons are hereby advised to take notice and comply accordingly.
